RAC is evolving, and we need a culture-driven professional to help shape our employee experience and workplace well-being. If you are passionate about creating an engaging, inclusive, and thriving work environment, this is the role for you.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develop and implement employee engagement and recognition initiatives.
- Design and implement diversity, inclusion, and workplace culture programs.
- Design and oversee workplace mental health and well-being strategies.
- Collaborate with management to enhance the work-life balance and overall employee experience.
- Advocate for a healthy, collaborative and high-performing work environment.
- Measure and analyze employee satisfaction and engagement trends to drive improvements.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

- Bachelor's degree in Human Resources, Organizational Psychology, Business Administration or related field.
- Strong experience in employee engagement, workplace well-being or HR programs.
- Passion for workplace culture and wellbeing and employee experience.
- Experience in building a positive and inclusive workplace culture.
- Excellent communication and collaboration skills.
