

Caribbean Shipstores NV is an international trading company in branded alcoholic beverages (liquor, wine, beer etc.) With our wide network of international customers and suppliers, we conduct business all over the world. We are results-driven, open and informal, team-based, ambitious and flexible.

Currently we are looking for a: Trade Support (Fulltime – 40 hr. work week).

The position:

The trade support will work within the logistics team, supporting our traders. As a member of the trade support team, you will be responsible for entering the import and export orders (Navision), process the orders, planning and communication with the traders, suppliers, clients and the different warehouses. Additionally you will be responsible for managing all internal and external logistic processes and all activities leading from this such as, the planning of both international transport and international air & sea freight, checking and assigning stock. All in all an all-round, multi task position.

Profile:

- Fluent in Dutch and English, additional language is a pré;
- Bachelor education preferably direction Logistics;
- Minimum of two years of experience in an internal logistic position;
- Knowledge of import & export documentation and Incoterms;
- Knowledge of Microsoft office, Navision is a pré and good general computer skills;
- Result driven from a logistic point of view
- Decision making skills and cost awareness
- Strong social team player who can deal with work pressure
- Able to prioritize and act pro-active
- No 9- 5 mentality

Applications letters along with your resume can be sent per email to:
Ramon de Rooy - rdr@caribbeanshipstores.com.

The application period will close on the 25th of January.

For any additional questions relating to this vacancy, please direct your calls to:
+5999519067.