

Curacao Civil Aviation Authority (CCAA), the Curacao Civil Aviation Authority, as part of the Ministry of Traffic, Transportation and Urban Planning (VVRP), advises the Minister and other governmental stakeholders regarding legislation, regulations and security oversight, registration and all other matters concerning aviation safety and security. The CCAA is responsible for safety and security oversight, registration and certification of aviation service providers, personnel licensing and monitors compliance with ICAO standards and recommended practices and other international treaties, agreements, conventions, annexes and standards.

The mission of CCAA is to ensure aviation safety and security on a national level. The Ministry of VVRP is looking for candidates for the position of:

Director General

The position

As Director General you are responsible for both the strategic as well as the daily management and leadership of the CCAA. You develop, implement and evaluate the strategic policies and plans and ensure the realization of the strategic goals. You ensure compliance with the Curaçao's Civil Aviation Act and regulations with ICAO Conventions and Annexes and other international treaties and agreements. You represent the CCAA and the government of Curaçao in different (international) settings. You supervise the provision of air navigation services, flight safety, airport safety, economic regulation of air transport and aeronautical meteorological services.

Your profile

You have a relevant academic degree and at least 10 years of senior managerial experience in the aviation industry. You have knowledge of ICAO and other sector regulations and preferably some insight into functions of government organizations related to the civil aviation industry. You are result oriented and you have excellent strategic management, analytical, problem-solving, and decision-making skills. Furthermore you are an inspirational leader who is able to lead and further develop the team. You know how to maneuver in a dynamic context and you possess excellent people-, networking-, negotiating- and communication skills. Furthermore you have well developed written and verbal communication skills in English, Dutch and preferably a basic working knowledge of Papiamentu.

The offer

Our client offers a challenging position in a dynamic context and an attractive compensation package.
